

Commission of Inquiry on Hormone Receptor Testing

February 8th, 2008

Notice to Public:
Commission of Inquiry Building is a Scent Free Environment

The Commission of Inquiry on Hormone Receptor Testing would like to advise the public and the media that the building in which hearings will be held is a scent free environment. This area includes the general office, public hearing room and common areas.

In recognition of individuals with asthma, allergies and severe environmental and chemical sensitivities, the Commission has asked that all those who attend the hearings or visit the offices located at 50 Tiffany Lane, please refrain from wearing fragrances and scented personal care products. This includes perfumes, colognes, aftershave and scented hair products. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.
