Subject: Meeting on Thursday @ the Department

So, I am assuming that we need to have the lists totally finished and have identified the number of outstanding patients. We are working diligently on this. I cancelled my flight to Ottawa so I could be available to get this completed. However, it is Heather and Terry that are the key people with this and Terry is gone as of today. We may have a problem here! I am meeting with Heather and Terry within the next hour to try and see where we are with all of this. Pat
