I think they are being very cautious. I have been invited over at 3 for a briefing.

Peter,

I asked Leona Barrington: Do you have the results of all the tests that were redone? Will that be discussed on Monday?

She replied: "We will release the number of patients who have required treatment changes since this discovery.

See you on Monday."

Leona

 I wonder if they are going to disclose all the numbers or try to spin this?

see you on Monday,

Mark
