We are just as anxious to get this done, are we not. I am thinking that you would feel better having this done, would you not? So, I say we go for it, but just let me ensure the powers that be know about this. I'll talk to you later today. Pat

Hi,

Reza was here this afternoon. Mr. Thompson has told Reza he needs to make this list happen and be complete final etc and RT will make ensure that all the resources he needs to make it happen will be available

Reza went away this afternoon and came back feeling that he needs my undivided attention to work though the list, so he is recommending to the DM that I work exclusively with him upon my return from holidays for 2 weeks in an office down here with access to Meditech but no phone (!)

He was going to e-mail RT tonight, so I wanted to make sure you were aware before you got the e-mail.

I certainly couldn't argue with him and I don't think it will take two weeks, the list is fundamentally done and all I have to do is verify all the pieces of paper with him....and I guess coming back from holidays will be a good time to do it.....

What do think.....

Heather
