No problem. We communicate several times a day. I won't be able to talk to her until tomorrow (she's in mtgs. today), but I'll call you first to make sure that I have it all straight. What's the best way to reach you?

Thanks again.

Hi,

I called her last Friday. I think I talk to fast for her, but we really had problems when I was trying to differentiate the three groups of patients. Could you touch base with her?

Thanks

Heather

Thanks very much for this info. Heather. I had been following it somewhat, but was not aware of the particular SPM pts. involved.

Did you initiate contact with Dr. Malluret or did she contact you? Her English is quite good.

Please keep me informed of how you are to proceed with this. Many thanks in advance.

Hi Sharon,

I don't know if you have been following this in the media but I need
