Hi ladies,

I have to tell you both about an incident that is unfolding as we speak. Joy McCarthy called me lunchtime about a lady who was admitted today with metastases after being diagnosed with breast cancer in 2000. I believe Jonathon Greenland is looking after her; he noticed she was ER/PR negative but thought she was missed in our review. He called Joy to check on the process and Joy called me.

She was retested and the results came back in October 2005 that she was positive. She was paneled and a letter went to Kara Laing November 4 as her attending to inform her of this. Kara was not chairing the panel that week, it was Joy that signed off the letter.

It appears that Kara did not see her and we are checking to see if Kara got the letter. Kara is on a plane right now, so we are unable to check with her. Joy has followed up with her secretary.

I've left a message with Sharon and spoke with Dr.. Williams to give him a heads up.

I'll keep you informed as this progresses. We had been contacting physicians to ensure follow-up but we were leaving the cancer clinic to last.

Heather
